

This practice now offers some patients the chance to be contacted by their doctor or nurse by Skype.

This is part of our ambition to make services as accessible and simple as possible.

If you know how to use Skype, and are interested, we need to take your details and store them with your patient information.

Please speak to our reception for more details.

